

Wraparound Facilitation Provider Requirements

A wraparound facilitator may be employed by a community agency. The community agency that employs a wraparound facilitator must: ensure the wraparound facilitator is working under the supervision of a licensed mental health professional; ensure the wraparound facilitator has completed the wraparound facilitation training sanctioned by the department; ensure all wraparound facilitators within the community agency are certified wraparound facilitators or working toward certification; document that all waiver enrollees have been given freedom of choice for all other waiver and state plan services; and ensure that any employee providing wraparound facilitation services has attended a wraparound facilitation training sanctioned by the department or has been trained by someone within the community agency who has attended a wraparound facilitation training sanctioned by the department. If trained by someone within the agency, the employee must attend the next wraparound facilitation training sanctioned by the department.

OR

Wraparound facilitation services may be provided by a licensed mental health professional in the state of Montana who is either a social worker licensed in accordance with ARM 37.88.205, a professional counselor licensed in accordance with ARM 37.88.305, or a psychologist licensed in accordance with ARM 37.88.605.

A wraparound facilitator who is a licensed mental health professional cannot provide any other waiver services or state plan services to the youth for whom they are facilitating. The licensed mental health professional must have attended the wraparound facilitation training sanctioned by the department and be a certified wraparound facilitator or working toward certification.

The wraparound facilitator and the home-based therapist cannot be employed by the same agency when serving on the treatment team and providing services to a specific youth enrolled in the PRTF (HCBS) waiver program.
